Some areas will not be safe during a hurricane. You may be told that it is safer to leave your home and travel to a safe place. This is called evacuating.

A safe place is away from the wind and flood waters. It can be a hurricane shelter, a hotel, or even the home of a family member or friend.

If you are told to evacuate, you must do this right away. Waiting to leave can be unsafe.